

The 18 best innovative concepts in France applying the 'Blue Ocean Strategy' are revealed

The 18 finalists of the 4th Blue Ocean Awards

Organized by the business school HEC Paris, the consulting cabinet AXESSIO Innovation Strategies Division and the French Ministry for Economy and Finance, Blue Ocean Awards have selected its finalists for its 4th edition. From almost 400 submissions, were picked the 18 best business offerings. These start-ups have demonstrated an extraordinary approach to customers and non-customers key issues and needs: they have created their own new markets, using Value Innovation, making their competition irrelevant.

Every Thursday during the month of October 2017, candidates have pitched in front of the Blue Ocean Awards jury and have shared their offerings. Finalists have presented features and characteristics of their product or service, strategy and innovation.

Visitors of the Blue Ocean Award will have the opportunity to discover the offerings of the 18 finalist companies and meet their executives, within the « Finalist Lounge », during all day of Blue Ocean Awards, on the 15th of December.
